The Address of the Reform Committee

The farewell address of the Executive Committee of the Union Reform party comes at a good time. It will relieve the people from the load of calumny heaped upon them during the Reform canvass; and it will, besides, confirm their determination to adhere, in good faith, to the pledges given by them and their representatives while the result of the contest was in doubt. The effort made by the Conservative citizens of the State to achieve, at one blow, their political redemption was wise, proper and necessary. Upon that score we have nothing to regret. The work remaining to be done is harder still. It is our policy now to maintain a severe silence, to preserve peace, to repress disorder, to encourage whatever worthy elements may be found in the curious mass of which South Carolina Radicalism is composed. Holding fast to this purpose, we must await an opportunity of choosing the least of the evils which may be presented for our acceptance. In this way we make our strength felt, with out giving cohesion and unity to the ruling party.

The address needs no commendation from us. Its thoughtful tone, its weighty words, and its patriotic spirit insure it a warm reception as a faithful expression of the wishes and present purpose of our people.

The State Finances.

Our Columbia correspondent exposes some of the ingenious tricks by which unscrupulous officials contrive to grow suddenly rich, and, if his statements are as correct as he certainly believes them to be, there is room for reform in the lower, as well as the higher, branches of our financial system. At the same time, we are free to confess our impression that Governor Scott is now extremely anxious to uphold the State credit. This, also, is our desire, and it is with the view of strengthening the hands of Governor Scott, and of the few who act with him, that we urge a thorough investigation of all the monetary transactions in which the State has been concerned during the past two years. Even this matter of the Fire Loan stock causes some uneasiness. Two weeks ago orders were sent from New York to Charleston to buy all that offered at ninetynine cents on the dollar, in currency. A little later an official announcement was made in New York that the Fire Loan stock would be redeemed, after December 31, at par, in gold. Yesterday, notice was also given in Charleston that the stock would be paid, but without specifying whether the payment would be made in coin or currency. This looks very like a job ; one in which, we are sure, Governor Scott has no share. What the punic want, then, is a plain unvarnished statement of the amount of our debt, and of the resources to be relied on for meeting it. And in no case should a Ring speculator be allowed to obtain information which is inaccessible to the general public. This would go far to restore the confidence which notorious events have rudely shaken.

Rebuking Sin.

Ex-Senator Daddy Cain comes out squarely and boldly in favor of retrenchment and reform; declares that the people expected the State tax, this year, to be reduced to two mills on the dollar, and enters his solemn protest against any increase of taxation, doing so, he says, "in the name of poor "laboring men of this State, who have all "these taxes to pay." Daddy Cain has heard that there is a deficiency of over two hundred thousand dollars, and he begs the Legislature to institute an inquiry "at some "other department than the Land Commission." He wants "the big whales" to be looked after, and warns the members of the Legislature that they were elected upon the basis of retrenchment and reform in the Republican party. This looks like business, but we wonder whether Daddy Cain has forgotten his indignant denunciation of the Reformers, who, in the late canvass, founded their opposition to the Radical party upon this very statement that economy and a reduction of expenses are necessary for the rich and indispensable to the poor?

THE bill of Mr. Whittemore to provide for the protection of so-called political martyrs at the expense of the counties in which they live, does not, it seems, go far enough. Cain, in the House, has given notice of a bill "to provide for the widows and orphans "of men murdered for their political opinions, "or otherwise;" and Joe Crews has given notice of a bill "to authorize the Land Com-"missioner to purchase a sufficient quantity "of land, and appropriate the same for the "free use and benefit of all parties compelled "to leave their homes from the counties of "Union, Laurens and Spartanburg, said "tracts not to contain more than one hun-"dred acres for each family." What next,

THE citizens of Long Cane, in Abbeville District, have adopted resolutions declaring that they denounce "in unmeasured terms' all manner of disturbance; that they will use all lawful means to feret out offenders; that any person acting contrary to the spirit of this determination will not be employed or encouraged, and that, in the event of this public declaration falling to produce the desired tranquility, they will appeal to the civil authorities for protection.

A Nomination for President.

The Barnwell Sentinel says: "We, of the South, must look to some Western man to bear aloft the Democratic standard of con-"stitutional law and liberty. George H. "Pendleton is that man. He has the nerve and the talent, the virtue and the patriot-"ism; the West and the South can elect him. Let us do it and go back to the constitution of our fathers. - Let us do it, and once

'more be a free people." We have no objection to urge against Mr. Pendleton, whose ability and public virtue we know and value. It is too early, however, to put any man in the field. We should bide our time; and, when the proper moment comes, take the strongest candidate then before the people.
